A cosy and delightful town house situated near the top of La Heredia in the original and charming area of the village. It has the most delightful views across the valley and to the mountains from one terrace whilst also commanding stunning views out to sea and the North African coastline from a second terrace. Stylishly presented and recently refurbished, the luminous triple aspect lounge has an open plan living and dining area with a working fire place making it cosy for the cooler months. From the lounge there is a compact, but well equipped kitchen and a terrace for outside dining which overlooks the charming garden below. Down stairs from the lounge there are two further bedrooms, a twin and a double with the latter having direct access to the terrace and pool area. Here you'll find a comfortable and very private terrace seating area with sun loungers and a beautiful small swimming pool. The second very large bathroom has a spacious walk in shower with ample room to be able to service both these downstairs bedrooms.
